

North

North

Dún Na Sí, Moate.

Scale 1:2000

Photo 0 Course 2

- Building
- Canopy
- Open land
- Rough open land
- Forest Run
- Forest Walk
- Forest Fight
- Vegetation: slow running
- Marsh
- Pond / lake
- Hedge
- Large tree
- Bush or small tree
- Vegetation feature
- Earth bank
- Earth wall
- Contour
- Paved area
- Paved area (Lower)
- Out of Bounds / Flowerbed
- Steps
- Footpath
- Impassable wall
- Passable fence or railing
- Impassable fence or railing
- Wall
- Boulder / boulder cluster
- Well
- Gate
- Lamp post
- Statue-street art
- Man-made feature
- Playground Equipment
- Bench
- Waste bin / Pole
- Bike Rack

Survey by Eric O'Brien, Cartography by Mark Stephens on May'23 on behalf of Orienteering Ireland.

Orienteering is an adventure sport that involves running over rough terrain and uneven tracks and paths. The representation of a track or path does not indicate a right of way. Users of this course do so entirely at their own risk.

Photo 0

Match the number with the photo

1	2	3
4	5	6
7	8	9
10	11	12
13	14	15